LEGISLATIVE PROCEEDINGS.

SENATE.

MONDAY, DEC. 4, 1865.

Senate called to order—prayer by the Rev. Calvin H. Willie, of the Presbyterian Church.

Mr. Wiggins presented a memorial accompanied by a bill, exempting the Raleigh & Gaston Rail Road from rebuilding the Railroad bridge at Gaston. Referred to the committee on Propositions and Grievances.

Mr. Ferebee introduced a resolution proposing to raise a joint committee to confer with the committee appointed by authority of the convention to draft a code for the government of the Freedmen. Adopted.

Mr. McCleese introduced the following resolutions, which were adopted:

Resolved by the General Assembly of North Carolina, That the members of this body, having entire confidence in the loyalty and honor of Hon. Z. B. Vance, would be pleased to see an extension of the Executive clemency in his pardon, and believe that this action would be highly gratifying to the people of the State.

Resolved, That the Speakers of this body be and they are hereby instructed to lay these resolutions before His Excellency, the Provisional Governor, and ask him to forward them to the President of the United States, with the assurance that the action of this assembly in the premises springs from a sincere desire to promote the patriotic aims of His Excellency, the President, in reconstructing the Union, and restoring to it the blessings of domestic tranquility.

A message was received from the House of Commons transmitting the engrossed resolutions of that body, declaring the loyalty of the people of North Carolina, and asking the concurrence of the Senate. The resolutions were unanimously concurred in.

Mr. McCleese introduced a bill to establish a homestead freehold, which was referred to the committee on the judiciary.

The bill to amend the 33rd chapter of the Revised Code, was taken up on its second reading, and on motion of Mr. Wilson, referred to the committee on the judiciary.

The Senate proceeded to vote for a Judge of the sixth judicial circuit, Messrs. Osborne and Mitchell being in nomination. Mr. Osborne received 19, and Mr. Mitchell 29 votes.

The bill extending the charter of the bank of North Carolina was taken up and placed on the calendar.

A message was received from the House transmitting the House bill fixing the per diem of members and officers of the General Assembly, and asking the concurrence of the Senate. [See House proceedings.]

The hour of 12 o'clock having arrived, the Senate proceeded to vote for a U. S. Senator for the long term. Hon. W. A. Graham received 34 votes, Hon. N. Boydon 2, Hon. Bedford Brown 1.

The Senate then proceeded to vote for a Senator for the short term. Hon. John Pool received 23 votes, Hon. Redford Brown 12, Hon. Thos. S. Ashe 7, Hon. W. N. H. Smith 1, Hon. W. Eaton 1.

Just at the close of the roll call, a message was received from the House of Commons transmitting the names of Hons. R. P. Dick and N. Boyden as being in nomination for the U. S. Senatorship for the short term. This informality was the result of a difference in time between the clocks of the two Houses.

A message was received from the House of Commons proposing to go forthwith into an election for a Judge of the eighth judicial circuit. Concurred in, and the Senate proceeded to vote as follows: Mr. Merrimon received —— votes, Mr. Lenoir.

Mr. Wilson from the committee to superintend the election for a U. S. Senator, reported that there was no election, Mr. Pool having received 80 votes, and it required 81 to elect.

It was then moved to proceed to vote again.

Mr. Ferrebee could see no reason for haste. The Hon. T. L. Clingman was claiming his seat in Congress, and a few days would determine that question. He therefore moved to lay the motion on the table, and called for the yeas and nays. The vote being had, there appeared a tie, and the Speaker voted no; whereupon, Mr. Ferrebee moved to amend the motion by postponing the election to Wednesday, 12 o'clock. Mr. Ferrebee based his position upon the ordinance of the convention assembled in this city in October last.

Mr. J. M. Leach, defending his position, declared his opinion that the convention did vacate all offices—that the Hon. T. L. Clingman did vacate his seat by taking an oath to support the Confederate States.

Pending this debate, a message was received from the House proposing to go into that election at half-past one o'clock to-day.

The debate was resumed: Mr. Warren sustained the position taken by Mr. J. M. Leach—there was not another State that pretended to claim a seat for any of its former representatives—Mr. Clingman, by his own acts, has vacated his seat.

Mr. Morehead participated in the debate, taking ground that Mr. Clingman, having his commission in his pockets, soared far above this body. He could only be tried by his compeers, and his seat declared vacant by them.

Mr. Ferrebee remarked that by this time the Senate of the U. S. Senate was in session, and he had no doubt but Mr. Clingman was now in the Senate claiming his seat. He had not been impeached, andcould see no reason why such haste should be made to elect a Senator before the seat of Mr. Clingman be vacant. The debate was prolonged beyond the time proposed by the House to go into an election, when a point of order being raised, the debate was cut off.

Mr. Howard introduced a resolution inquiring of the judiciary committee, whether or not the senatorial term commencing 4th of March, 1861, be vacant or not.

Mr. J. M. Leach moved to lay that resolution on the table, and called for the yeas and nays, which resulted, yeas 22, nays 23.

The resolution then passed.

The resignation of the Hon. W. A. Graham as Sentor from Orange, was read, whereupon

Mr. Shober introduced a resolution instructing the Speaker of the Senate to issue an order for an election to be held in the county of Orange, on Thursday, the 14th inst., to fill the vacancy.

On motion of Mr. Jones of Wake, the Senate adjourned till to-morrow morning, 11 o'clock.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

MONDAY, December 4, 1865.

The Speaker called the House to order.

Mr. Hawes, member elect from New Hanover, was qualified and took his seat.

Mr. Kenan introduced a resolution instructing the judiciary committee to inquire and report the propriety and expediency of passing a homestead bill. Adopted.

By Mr. Cowan, a resolution of inquiry in regard to recalling certain bonds issued to the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad, and to issue other bonds in lieu of the same. Adopted.

A message was received from the Governor transmitting the report of Dr. Fisher, Superintendent of the Insane Asylum. Referred, on motion of Mr. Russell, to the committee on the Insane Asylum.

Mr. Murrell offered a resolution fixing the per diem and mileage of the officers and members of the General Assembly, which, after some amendments offered, and either withdrawn or rejected, the resolutions were adopted under a suspension of the rules. [The resolutions fix the same rates as those adopted by the State Convention.]

Mr. Allison introduced a bill to amend Revised Code, sec. 14 of chapter 101, in regard to public roads. Referred to the committee on the judiciary.

By Mr. Chandler, a bill to build a toll bridge across French Broad River, ten miles north of Asheville. Referred to the committee on Internal Improvements.

Mr. Waugh moved a message be sent to the Senate proposing to rescind the joint order to elect U. S. Senators to-day at 12 o'clock.

Mr. Waugh said his reason for desiring to rescind the joint order was, a prominent gentleman spoken of in connection with the Senatorship is not at present eligible. He wished further time that the difficulties in this case might be removed, so that he could feel free to vote for him without seeming to go counter to the policy and feelings of the President.

Mr. Jenkins, of Warren, opposed the motion. He believed the petition of pardon of the gentleman alluded to had never met the eye of the President, and the best way of bringing it before him was to send him to Washington as the unanimous choice of the State for Senator.

Mr. Smith, of Hertford, moved to amend by proposing to rescind so much of the joint order as related to electing Senator for the short term.

Mr. Blackmer asked the reason for the amendment, as he wished to know the reason for the amendment before voting on it.

Mr. Smith withdrew his amendment.

Mr. Russell moved to amend by proposing to rescind so much of the joint order as relates to electing for the long term.

Mr. Jenkins, of Warren, moved to lay the whole subject on the table, and demanded the yeas and nays. The same were ordered, and the motion adopted—yeas 86, nays 24.

Mr. Best, Secretary of State, in accordance with the requirement of law, reported the following counties as having failed to make returns of the election for Governor, on the second Thursday of November: Pitt, Polk, Bertie, Cherokee and Clay.

A message was received from the Senate proposing to go forthwith into the election of Judge for the sixth circuit, and nominating Hons. James W. Osborne and Anderson Mitchell. The proposition was concurred in, and the House proceeded to vote, under the superintendence of Messrs. Hutchison and Sharpe; who afterwards reported whole number of votes 164, necessary to election 83, and that Mr. Mitchell had received 94, and Mr. Osborne 70; and that Mr. Mitchell was, therefore, elected.

A message was received from the Senate proposing to raise a joint committee of three on the part of the Senate and five on the part of the House, to confer with the Board of Commissioners appointed by the Convention to frame a code of laws for the freedmen, and the message was concurred in.

A message from the Senate stating that the hour having arrived that body would proceed immediately to the election of U. S. Senator, for the unexpired term, commencing March 4th, 2865. The House proceeded to vote under the superintendence of Messrs. Cameron and Webb, as follows:

Those who voted for Mr. Graham are Mr. Speaker, Messrs. Allison, Arrington, Barnett, Baxter, Beasley, Black, Blackmer, Bonner, Bryson, Burgess, Burton, Caldwell, Cameron, Candler, Carson, Chadwick, Cowan, Cox, Craige, Crawford, Dalby, Dargan, Davis, of Carteret, Davis, of Halifax, Dunn, Everett, Faircloth, of Green, Faircloth, of Wayne, Farrow, Faison, Ferrell, Flythe, Foster, Furr, Gaines, Garland, Gidney, Harper, Harrison, Hawes, Henrahan, Henry, Hodnett, Holderby, Hoke, Horton, Holmes, Houston, Hutchison, Hyman, Jenkins, of Warren, Jones, Joyner, Judkins, Kenan, Lee, of Gates' Leigh, of Tyrrell, Logan, Lucas, Luke, Lyon, Manly, Marler, Matthews, McAden, McDonald, McEachern, McGuire, McIntosh, McKay, McNair, Melson, Moore, of Alamance, Moore, of Martin, Mott, Murphy, Murrill, Niven, Newsum, Palmer, Paschall, Roseboro, Russell, Sharpe, Shaw, Simmons, Smith, of Columbus, Smith, of Cumberland, Smith, of Guilford, Smith, of Hertford, Stilley, Teague, Thigpen, Thompson, Trull, Webb, Wheeler, Whitley, Williams, Wilson, and Yellowly.

Those who voted for Mr. Boyden are Messrs. Ashworth, Blythe, Hamilton, Scoggin, Waugh, York.

The committee afterwards reported whole number 154, necessary to election 78; that Mr. Graham had received 138 votes, Mr. Boyden 7, Mr. Dick 6, and Mr. Brown 1; and that Mr. Graham was therefore elected.

A message was received from the Senate informing the House that that body would proceed immediately to the election of U. S. Senator, to fill the unexpired term, commencing March 4th, 1861. The House proceeded to vote under the superintendence of Messrs. Henry and Niven. Messrs. John Pool, Thos. S. Ashe, Bedford Brown, Robert P. Dick, and Nathaniel Boyden being in nomination, with the following result in the House:

Those who voted for Mr. Brown, are—

For Mr. Henry, Mr. Wheeler. For Mr. Smith, Mr. Wilson.

The committee reported whole number of votes 160, necessary to election 81; that Mr. Pool received 80 votes, Mr. Ashe 47; Mr. Boyden 7; Mr. Brown 22; Mr. Smith 2, and Messrs. Wm. Eaton Jr., and Dr. P. T. Henry, one each. No one having received a majority, there was no election.

On motion of Mr. Craige, a message was sent to the Senate, to go into the election of Judge for the 8th circuit, the proposition was concurred in and the House proceeded to vote under the superintendence of Messrs. The committee reported whole number of votes 159, necessary to election 80; that Mr. Merrimon received 104 votes and Mr. Lenoir 55, and that Mr. Merrimon was therefore elected.

On motion of Mr. McAden, a message was sent to the Senate proposing to go into the election of U. S. Senator for the short term, to-day at 1½ o'clock, p. m.

A message was received from His Excellency, Gov. The Speaker appointed the following gentlemen as the House branch of the joint committee in regard to freedmen: Messrs. Thompson, McAden, Cowan, Hoke and Holderby.

The following additional names were added to complete the number on committees heretofore appointed:

CRIMINAL CARNIVAL.—Within a week past, a number of robberies have been perpetrated, one or two at the hotels, others elsewhere, and several parties have been molested along the streets. The approach of winter seems to inspire with fresh courage and new audacity the small and great criminals in our midst. They are generally manufactured by idleness, and we again invoke the strong arms of the military and civil authorities in an instant co-operative effort to crush them out.

The best method, apparently, of accomplishing this riddance will be to institute a thorough inquiry into the means of support enjoyed by all idlers whose character for integrity is not known. It is not difficult for the military, aided by our city police and citizens, to distinguish between good, bad and indifferent, and those who are found wanting in the first quality should be required to depart at once. It is undeniable that a large number of persons living in the city are paupers and crimininals, unwilling to maintain themselves by honest toil. They should be ferreted out, arrested and examined, and then sent to the chain-gang or expelled from the community.

The best that can be done protectively, after the exhaustion of the first remedy, is to post the police in the manner of pickets, each of these officials being circumscribed in his operations by a fixed district, unless specially summoned by the chief of police for a different field of duty. By this arrangement—the same which prevails in all well regulated cities—there would be a complete system of legal physical telegraphy throughout Raleigh. Under such disposition of the guardians of our place, it would be next to impossible for dangerous men, white or black, to condnct successfully any species of vice. They would be confronted at almost every step by stern officers of the law, with "billy" in hand, ready to place them beyond power of doing harm.

We invite attention to the matter, in the hope that these recommendations, or others equally or more efficacious, may be put into operation.

[redacted]

ROOT THEM OUT.—Restaurants have a legal status, being licensed by provision of the supreme authority of the State; but dance houses for prostitutes, in connection therewith, is a shame and disgrace to any community, and should be crushed wherever found. Our attention has been called to one or two places in Raleigh where such characters assemble for the amusement indicated, and unless desisted from, we shall not only give the names of their proprietors, but demand the suppresion by the police of these dens of infamy. A word to the wise ought to be sufficient.

The truth is, public morals are not what they were a few years since, and it becomes all decent men to unite in every form to break down the roughs.

WINTER GAYETIES.—The festival season is almost upon us, and notwithstanding the tightness of the money market, people begin to return to good old habits. Parties on an extensive scale are not to be thought of, but oyster and bird suppers now constitute the staple of private entertainment. We made one of a pleasant company at the house of Mr. John T. High, last Saturday night, when the luxuries we have named were served up in profusion under the supervision of Madam. Our legislative friends present, in connection with the professors of typography, showed their appreciation of the supper by a vigorous attack on all which was eyeable. No wonder such boarding houses are crowded.

THE DOMESTIC MARKET—Yesterday—was not so full as usual. Blue Monday always seems to affect country, as well as town, injuriously in point of turning out.

Beef by the side was offered at 8 to 10 cts; Mutton 10; Pork, small quantities, 20; "whole hog or none" 12½, Cabbage (Northern) 25 to 50 cts; Sausage, country made, 30 to 33½; Chickens, 25 to 30 cts; Sheet, 12½; Butter, 50; Eggs, 30; Turnips, $1.00 per bushel by the quantity; Sweet potatoes, 90 cts. to $1.

RAN OFF THE TRACK.—The engine attached to the up freight train on the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad, ran off the track yesterday, near Clarksville Junction, thereby obstructing the road so that the passenger train could not pass. No damage, we are glad to be informed, was done to the cars, passengers or employes. It will probably be to-day before the road is cleared.

FUNERAL OBSEQUIES.—The funeral of the late P. H. WINSTON, Esq., took place from the Presbyterian Church yesterday afternoon, and was largely attended. The sermon was preached by the Rev. Dr. Lacy, who referred to the life and death of the deceased in appropriate terms. The great number of our citizens present, besides many members of both branches of the Legislature from other sections of the State, was a fitting manifestation of the great esteem in which Mr. W. was held.

SABBATH SCHOOL MISSIONARY SOCIETY.—Sunday in the Baptist Sabbath school, a missionary society was organized with the following officers:

President—J. C. L. Harris.
Vice President—Thos. H. Briggs.
Secretary—Jno. C. Askew.
Treasurer—Thos. E. Skinner, jr.

Its name explains the object and it is to be sustained by contributions of the membership.

DEAD STOCK.—A countryman, who brought ten turkeys to market Monday morning, discovered, upon arriving here, that they were dead. The carpet rags with which they were bound had been drawn so tight as to prevent the circulation of the blood, and death was the consequence. This is nearly a parallel with the case of death from tight lacing.

ANOTHER COUNTERFEIT.—We see that new counterfeit five dollar legal tender notes have been detected. These issues of the spurious may be known by their dark appearance, and general clumsy execution of the goddess of liberty on the left end of the notes.

GEN. GRANT'S VISIT TO THE SOUTH.—of the visit of Gen. Grant to the South, the Washington Chronicle says:

The visit of Lieutenant General U. S. Grant to the Southern States has furnished food for many sensation paragraphs, and material enough for a few first-class romances. There is a class of individuals who, by common consent, are looked upon as prophetic in their opinions; consequently, when they designate the mission of the Lieutenant General as "significant," it is presumed to be of some importance. Hence the fact that, notwithstanding he left all the habiliments and "pomp and glory of war" on this side of the Potomac, and carries with him nothing more sulphurous than the matches with which to light his "inevitable cigar," the always gullible portion of humanity believe that there is "a speck of war on the horizon," and that the General is on his way to the Rio Grande to fan the embers of strife into a flame that will eventually consume the Imperial forces and give to Mexico a free Government. For the information of these wiseacres, however, we will say that the object of General Grant's visit to the Southern States is merely to inspect the situation and condition of the United States troops scattered through a large portion of the States, and his tour will not extend beyond Charleston. His visit will not only prove of great benefit to himself, but it will also be beneficial to the interests of our brave soldiers stationed in the South.

He has six offices and six wives.

DAILY PROGRESS.

J. L. PENNINGTON, ... Editor and Proprietor.

A Survey of the Field.

In May and June last, under the convulsions of the shock caused by subjugation, and the fears of punishment which many felt they deserved, the submission of the people throughout the length and breadth of North Carolina seemed complete, and when Gov. HOLDEN commenced the work of restoration under the instructions of the President but little trouble was apprehended. Time passed on, however, and one after another of the leaders in the work of desolation and death were pardoned; prominent leaders of the rebellion, growing bold as leniency was shown them, became arrogant and boastful, until at last even unpardoned rebels dared enter the political arena, and demanded position and power; not for anything they had done at any time to save or preserve the Union, but they demanded it as an endorsement of the conspicuous part they had borne in the attempt to break up the Government and destroy the life of the Nation. It is in fact well known that a man who has been, during the war, the steadfast friend of the Union and the enemy of the Davis usurpation, is odious in the eyes of a large number of those who now proclaim their Unionism from the housetops, and profess to be better friends of the government than those who have adhered to it all the time. To be still more explicit, the men who were for sacrificing the last man and the last dollar and hounded on the dogs of war long after the last ray of hope for the success of the rebellion had vanished, are elevated to high and responsible positions, while ultra Union men, those who plead for negotiation, conciliation and reconstruction that the inhuman butchery might be stayed, find no favor with the populace, and are invariably beaten for position when they come before the people.

This is the condition of things, as clearly indicated in all our elections, and yet the disaffected leaders who are responsible for this state of things, and who boast of being "Confederates," and sneer at Union men, express great astonishment and horror that our Senators and Representatives are to be kept out of Congress and the State denied admission to the Union. We are to be kept out for a time, until a returning sense of decency and propriety shall induce these leaders to behave better, and they are responsible for it.

And not content with damaging the prospects of the State, as they have been told directly by the President, in organizing an opposition for the defeat of Gov. HOLDEN and electing gentlemen to Congress who had not been pardoned, they now propose to add insult to injury by asking the Senate of the United States to admit into that body those whom the President, for reasons satisfactory to himself, has refused to pardon. Gentlemen may go on in this course, those who have been selected by the people to lead in the work of restoring the State to the Union may maintain their defiant bearing and talk of their constitutional rights, but we think we know something of the temper of the government and of the Northern people, and we tell them the State will not be received into the Union until there is a radical change in the action of the people towards the government. Professions are as nothing, so long as the good works are wanting; and according to the declarations of the President and the givings out of the dominant party in Congress, the lack of good works will be damaging if not fatal to us.

Speculating upon the events of the past and our hopes for the future, the Newbern Times, a loyal paper, has the following:

Damaged Prospects.—Whatever may have been the individual opposition to Provisional Governor HOLDEN, in the late election, whether based upon alledged unfaithfulness to principles espoused, or to supposed unsoundness, it is at least clear to the public mind that the Governor was the agent of the administration in North Carolina; and, as it now fully and triumphantly appears, the trusted and honored agent.

The excellent and highly esteemed gentleman, who defeated him in the election, bears a good record for Unionism, as well as for moral fitness, and we did not question his loyalty to the national authority. But, even had he been entirely free from the slightest connection with the late rebellion, we should have opposed his election upon the ground that his competitor was the acknowledged representative of the administration, and the agent of the Executive who was endeavoring to bring harmony out of the enmity between the two sections. In other words, Gov. HOLDEN had been selected, above all others, by the President, to carry out the national policy, and we thought it the duty of all people to give in their assent to the President's plan of reconstruction by honoring the man whom he had chosen. Even those who might have still entertained some lingering objections to the national rule, could, with decent propriety, have yielded their prejudices for the good of the masses and acquiesced in the choice—knowing, too, that if the Governor's administration of State affairs proved objectionable, they could have the opportunity, in two brief years, to change it.

But there was a most extensively used argument to the effect that if President JOHNSON permitted a free vote, he certainly would not object to the choice of the people. This was true, in one sense, though erroneous in another and more important. In permitting a free election by the people, he but acted wisely in pursuing a plan by which he might see plainly the feeling of the people in the conquered States. He gave them the privilege of showing the extent of the loyalty professed by them, in order that he might govern his policy to meet the emergency.

But the Provisional Governor was defeated at the ballot-box and the fears of a large number of citizens have been almost, if not entirely, realized by the subsequent action of the national Executive. We published yesterday the dispatch received from Washington, by the Provisional Governor, and we cannot help thinking that the language of the message bears a tinge of sorrow or sadness in its composition, evidencing a regret that the course pursued by the State had "greatly damaged" its "prospects."

In spite of every effort against it, we find it impossible to rid our mind of the impression that if our people had acted differently, had acquiesced in the choice of the President in reference to the State of North Carolina, our "prospects" for re-entering into the enjoyments of equal privileges and guarantees would not have been so [illegible] now appear to be.

The President, in his [illegible] sincere hope that the Legislature will devote its energies as to repair the [illegible] which the action of the people at the late election has occasioned. We believe that every [illegible] ing man will join in this sincere wish, and that despite the present gloomy appearance of [illegible] future, something may yet be done to satisfy the administration [illegible] gether a contumacious people.

Our Washington Correspondence.

Special to the Progress.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—Slowly, and by ones and twos, senators and representatives are coming to face their winter's work. The great majority of them will put off until the last moment their departure from home. Yesterday counted but few arrivals, which was doubtless in a great degree owing to the severe snow storm which commenced to fall early in the day, and continued with excellent New England like perseverance—excepting that it did not remain on the earth—until night approached. Just now the sun is shining in all brightness and brilliancy, but there is too much of the mud and slush which is characteristic of Washington streets in the winter, to admit of any considerable pedestrianism.—Ladies inclined to look at the fall goods must abandon their ideas until Pennsylvania avenue recovers from its present condition. One result of the storm yesterday was the destruction of the telegraph wires south of here. They periodically get out of order. The wires north were all right.

MILITARY COMMISSIONS.

These encroachments upon the good old time institutions will go the way of all unpopular establishments before many more moons. The restoration of the writ of habeas corpus, which will be officially poomulgated very soon, will be a death blow to the functions of Judge Advocates and brass-buttoned juries in general. It will no doubt set at rest the wild and varied speculations upon the trial of Jefferson Davis by a military court yet in the uncertain future. Strange to say, there are those who counsel the continuance of all the laws which in a time of peace are universally thought to be odious; but it is significant that such views are mainly entertained by those who have reaped a plentiful pecuniary harvest through the kind dealings of war.

MEXICAN AFFAIRS.

The daily bulletins with reference to affairs on the Rio Grande, the position of Juarez, and numerous other events in Mexico's chaotic territory, now that Congress is about to be in session, are being read with a little more than usual interest. It is not believed that we will get into a row with France about Mexico any more than we will with Spain about Chili.—

lars requesting collections to be taken up on that particular day for the object of its organization. The predictions of what they will suffer by the winter blasts are truly distressing. Many of these wretched creatures who looked upon Washington as the modern El Dorado, are beginning to see the fallacy of their hopes, and long sadly for "the old Kentucky home far away."

PARDONS, ETC.

Many gentlemen from the South remain in Washington, whose missions are for the purpose of procuring their pardons; but few, however, are being granted. The President has not concluded to suspend pardoning as some newspapers have published. The pressing demands upon his time at present precludes the possibility of examining the multitudinous batch of papers which are presented for that purpose, and which is necessarily antecedent to pardon.

The weather which this morning seemed to have recovered from yesterday's frown, has again clouded up, and there is every prospect of a copious disposition of Jupiter Pluis' favors which will not enhance in the least the beauty of our avenues and side streets.

OWEN.

GEO. S. HOUSTON and LEWIS E. PARSONS, the latter Provisional Governor, have been elected to the U. S. Senate from Alabama.—They have both been ultra Union men, and it is thought both can take the oath.

Alabama seems desirous of getting back into the Union, and the people put forward such men as they think will be most acceptable at Washington; but here in North Carolina, a State that has boasted so much Unionism, the case is different. Some of the copperhead presses here insist that no one who can take the oath must be sent to Congress, and persons who have not been pardoned are selected over those who would be more acceptable.

The Senatorship.

Yesterday the Legislature elected Hon. W. A. GRAHAM Senator for the long term, and came within one vote of electing Mr. JOHN POOL for the short term. Messrs. SWAIN, DICK, ASHE and BOYDEN were voted for. Mr. GRAHAM received 138 votes of the 184 cast. Mr. GRAHAM has not been pardoned, but we presume, from present indications, that his case for admission will be about as good as any of them.

THE Legislature yesterday elected ALFRED MITCHELL, Judge of the 8th Judicial Circuit, and R. B. MARSHALL, Judge for the 9th Circuit.

IF we shall fail in [illegible] summary of the Pr[illegible] first page given to-[illegible] will contain that important document.

STATE ITEMS.

No feature of the late war is more melancholy than the fact that the fate or whereabouts of numbers of persons engaged in it is still unknown. A new applicant for information is in the field. Mrs. Mary L. Charles, of Salem, in this State, inquires as to the whereabouts of Andrew Charles, who was a member of Co. F, 3rd Regiment N. C. Troops. Said Andrew Charles was taken prisoner on the 5th of May, 1864, and sent to Point Lookout and remained there till October, 1864. Then he was sent to Elmira prison and nothing has been heard of him since. Any information concerning said Charles will be thankfully received by his distressed family.

Before their adjournment, in addition to the proceedings printed yesterday, the Stockholders of the Wilmington and Manchester Railroad fixed the salaries of the officers of that improvement as follows:

President,	$4,500
General Superintendent,	$3,000
Secretary and Treasurer,	$3,000

And that the officers who may be elected shall give their undivided services to the business of the road.

On motion of D. S. Cowan, Esq., the meeting went into an election of officers.

H. M. Drane, Esq, was declared elected President of the Company for the ensuing year, and the following named gentlemen as Directors:

John Dawson, O. G. Parsley, S. G. Burr, G. J. W. McCall, D. S. Cowan, Henry Nutt, R. Bradley, N. N. Nixon, J. E. Gregg and W. E. Anders.

Resolutions were adopted presenting the widow of the late President of the Company, Thos. D. Walker, with the sum of $2,500, and granting life-time free transportation over the road to the former Treasurer, Jos. J. King. The President and Directors of the corporation have been authorized to open books of subscription for 3576 shares of capital stock, and that the stock so subscribed may be constituted a preferred stock, entitled to 7 per cent. per annum from the earnings of the Company, and if necessary, as an inducement, that the present Stockholders subscribing for such preferred stock, shall be entitled to convert or exchange a like number of shares of their old stock into the new proposed preferred stock, share for share, and be entitled to the same annual dividend as the new stock so subscribed.

After fixing upon Wilmington as the place and Wednesday after the fourth Monday in November, 1866, as the time for their next meeting, it was agreed that, in the event the present holders of the bonds of the Company assent to an extension of the time of payment of the interest due on said bonds, the President and Directors are authorized and empowered to issue new bonds for the payment of the debts so extended, and, if necessary, to execute any further mortgage or mortgages of the property of the Company which may be deemed advisable.

Privates John Stalter and Samuel Baxter, Co. C, 5th Ohio Cavalry, now in military prison at Fort Macon, under sentence of general court martial, are to be immediately released from confinement, by order of the Secretary of War, and sent to Columbus for muster out of service.

—Judge Caskie, of Va., is indicted for rebel against association to West Virginia, as a late resident in Charlestown, it was ordered that five persons from each magisterial district of the county be appointed for the purpose of [illegible] those persons for whom [illegible] to qualify as [illegible] and that [illegible] be willing to [illegible] the same [illegible] receive [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

BURNING OF THE MUSEUM.

LETTER FROM MR. P. T. BARNUM.

New York, July 14, 1865.

Messrs. Herring & Co.:

GENTLEMEN: Though the destruction of the American Museum has proved a serious loss to myself and the public, I am happy to verify the old adage that "It's an ill wind that blows nobody good," and, consequently, congratulate you that your well-known safes have again demonstrated their superior fire-proof qualities in an ordeal of unusual severity.

The safe you made for me some time ago was in the office of the Museum, on the second floor, back part of the building, and in the hottest of the fire.

After twenty-four hours of trial it was found among the debris, and on opening it this day, has yielded up its contents in very good order—books, papers, policies of insurance, bank bills, all in condition for immediate use, and a noble commentary on the trustworthiness of Herring's Fire-Proof Safes.

Truly yours,

P. T. BARNUM.

DAILY PROGRESS.

RALEIGH, N. C.

GENERAL INTELLIGENCE.

—The Freedmen's Bureau have recently authorized the faculty of the medical college in Richmond to take charge of the hospitals in that city devoted to the use of the blacks. The physicians of the above institutions are permitted to lecture to the students upon such subjects as are brought under treatment, so far as is not incompatible with the comfort of patients. No remuneration accompanies this privilege, the bureau merely furnishing the medical stores for the hospitals.

—The business men of Philadelphia have subscribed $150,000 toward establishing steamship lines between Philadelphia and Wilmington, North Carolina; Savannah, Georgia; Charleston, South Carolina; New Orleans, Louisiana. The sum of $85,000 has been paid in.

The Nashville "Union" says: "The German farmers of Texas have again raised a cotton crop of superior quality to any grown by slave labor. It is a cleaner, fairer fabric, and will bring the highest market price. When the farmer works his own cotton, it is tended and handled at every stage with the utmost care, and this care brings out the greatest skill—The delusion that cotton cannot be cultivated by free labor is getting rapidly disproved by actual experiment. It is probable that free labor will produce more and better cotton than has ever been raised before."

The following with reference to Gen. Grant's movements appears in the National Intelligencer of yesterday: "The departure of Lieut. Gen. Grant for Richmond has occasioned considerable conjecture. The prevailing impression is that he has been deputed by the President for a line of duty connected with high political considerations. It is publicly announced that his tour will probably embrace Charleston and other Southern cities, while the suggestion has been made that it may extend to New Orleans, and even further beyond the Mississippi."

The Secretary of War's report will embrace the operations of the armies during his whole administration of a little over three years, and will cover the elaborate and able report of Lieutenant General Grant, which will explain several points now in dispute relative to the authorship of important military movements.

—The tone and temper of the members of Congress who have up to the present time arrived at the Capital, Washington despatches say, indicate almost unanimity in opposition to the immediate admission of the representatives from the Southern States, and there is no disposition manifested to repeal the Congressional test oath.

—The Fenians, according to official returns, number in Canada over seventy thousand.—All the Catholics in the volunteers at Toronto have been drawn out. The Orangemen and Catholics are arming generally.

—Freedmen occupying lands in Georgia which have been restored to the former owners, are notified to remove before December 20.

—The contract for supplying the troops quartered in New York, which expired a few days since, was extended till March next.

—In 1860 the city and county expenses of New York City amounted to $9,784,010 80, and in 1864 to $15,055,404 21.

—The official vote in Pennsylvania gives the Union Candidates 22,600 majority. 238,440 votes were for the Union ticket, and 215,740 for the Democratic.

WILLIAM H. CROW, GENERAL AGENT.

Office North of Capitol, Wilmington St, Raleigh.

Facts to be Considered.

There are but few subjects presented to the mind of man upon which there are not a great variety of opinions, and about which there are not protracted discussions. But there are a few facts so well established, and so uncontrovertable that they are universally assented to. One is that all men now living will soon be called upon to gather up their feet and depart to the land of the dead. "One generation goeth, and another cometh, and we have no abiding city here," is a matter about which there is no dispute. Another is, "Of that day, and of that hour, knoweth no man." Whether death cometh at the twelfth hour or at the cock crowing, is of equal uncertainty to all.

Another is that when wife and children gather around us, to take their final leave, in that sad circle centers all our earthly interest. The last earthly rational thought of Husband and Father is Wife and Children, (if worthy of sustaining such endearing relations.) Another is, no man living knows what may be the result of his efforts to secure a competence for his family. "Riches take to themselves wings and fly away," has been realized by how many? Adverse winds of to-morrow may take the place of to-day's prosperous gales. Under currents which the most penetrating eye cannot see, or the strongest arm control, may, in an evil hour, sweep away the hard earnings of years. Another is, no man ever has or ever can assume more sacred obligations than Husband and Father. Hence it is said that he that will not provide for his own household is worse than an infidel.

Now, what Husband and Father is there battling with the difficulties of life, knowing as he must that uncertainties attend every effort, and wait upon every enterprise, that he has not with earnest voice and anxious heart called to the future to unlock its barred gates and reveal to him the result of this or that undertaking. But the only voice that comes from that land of silence is, "Verily, thou knowest not what shall be on the morrow."

Such are some of the few facts about which there is no controversy, and such are some of the uncertainties that ever have, and ever will, gather around our pathway through life, and which, have, in generations past, and will in generations to come, trouble and oppress the Husband and Father.

Now, in view of these facts, responsibilities and uncertainties, it is for you to judge and decide upon the propriety, necessity and duty of making a policy on your life for the benefit of your family. Will it not relieve you of your present anxiety to know that a certain portion of the fruits of your labors are secured to that family? Remember that whatever you pay for a life policy is paid to them. The stranger intermeddleth not with that.

Remember, also, that $5,000, paid to them in that day when the heart and flesh shall fail you, will be more to them than $10,000 while you are here to provide for them. Also remember that the amount for which you are insured will not be diminished in the settling of your estate, and that, from generation to generation, Life Insurance has answered the end for which it was ordained as fully, to say the least, as any institution of man's creation, and that its primary object was, and still is, to secure the family against the stern realities of want, and to relieve from corroding anxiety those who have assumed family responsibilities.

Do you say "I know it would be wise in me to take out a policy and I intend to do so soon; but just now I want to use all my funds in my business." Friend, if it is wisdom in you to insure at all, it is folly to defer it, to-morrow is in eternity; therefore "Boast not thyself of to-morrow." "Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof." "Procrastination is the thief of time."

The Aetna Life Insurance Company offers you all the inducements to insure that can be found in any company. Its assets are over a million and a half. It has a surplus of $3,000,000 over and above what is required to re-insure all its policies. Its monthly receipts are over $150,000, and it is issuing monthly nearly 1,000 policies. Its rates for insuring are as reasonable as those of any other well-established, responsible Company. It is paying as large dividends to its policy-holders as any other Company. Its officers are competent business men. Its assets are as permanently and as safely invested as any other company can invest theirs, and from which as good interest is being received. It pays its losses as promptly, is as particular in the character of its risks and as yet a stranger to litigation.

TRIPS TO THE OLD HOME ONE!

A CREECH has just returned from the North, where he has laid in a large stock of

STAPLE AND FANCY DRY GOODS,

Embracing the various new styles of Dress Goods, together with Ladies' Cloaks, Shawls, Hosiery, Gloves, Ladies' and Misses' Balmoral Skirts, Ladies' Merino Shirts, Ladies' Merino Drawers, Gents' Merino Shirts, Gents' Merino Drawers, Gents' Woolen and Cotton Shirts and Drawers, Gents' Hose, Gents' Linen and Paper Collars, Gents' Cravats, Children's Boots and Shoes, Ladies' Boots and Shoes, Gents' Boots and Shoes, Hats, Caps, &c., &c., &c., all of which will be sold by the Dealer; the Proprietor of these establishments styles for cash or approved country produce. Among the many articles to be found in his store, will be found Wood and Willow Ware, Crockery and Glass Ware, and a very superior lot of Family Groceries.

Take my stock altogether, I have one among the largest and most desirable and complete stocks of Staple and Fancy Dry Goods in the city.

Now, allow me to say that I bought my goods to sell, and they must and shall be sold; but I don't expect to take a piece of poetry in one hand and a full grown humbug in the other and climb up to the clouds and fish out the birds of Paradise and gently bring them down with a pleasant smile on their faces, "Selling out at cost! selling out at cost!" No, I deal in no such humbug. I keep no stale chest of goods. I keep no time-worn, shelf rubbed, defaced or dusty goods—dust to dust by sycamore rub it off with a knife. My goods are all new and of good styles, and I intend to sell them as low as anybody that bought goods with the expectation of paying for them, and the man that sold the goods to the man that don't intend to pay for them is a fool—and the man that sells them is a rascal. Now this is plain talk, but 'tis no slip of the tongue. I mean what I say, and say what I mean. I have lived here and sold goods here for twenty years. I expect to remain here. I pay my taxes to support institutions of the city, county and state. I expect to continue to do so. I respectfully ask my old customers, my old friends and new ones to call and examine my stock. I will deal with you honestly and treat you right. If I don't sell you goods as cheap as you can by the same class of goods elsewhere I don't expect you to buy. Call at the R. Smith building, house formerly occupied by Creech & Litchford, Commission Merchants and Auctioneers.
